Announcing slick new-season facial formulas, the glow-getters tackling pigmentation and our cult-worthy Prix d'Excellence Award winners

#OBSESSED

Pink is the colour of femininity, vitality and romance. It's also perfect if you're craving a change of pace after winter's claret hues. We're officially smitten with Dolce & Gabbana Beauty's new Peony Lovers collection. The Blush Touch, £31 – a cushion stick best finger-painted on to cheeks – takes centre stage for a pretty flush. Factor in a coordinating eyeshadow palette, £44, and vibrant velvety-matte Dolcissimo lip colour (try 'Coral' for a hit of this year's on-trend pantone shade), £36 each, and you can look fresh faced no matter what the weather has in store for us.
