

Beauty

Award-winning fragrances from our international team of editors, new-gen pore perfectors, and the power of pink

#OBSESSED

Fancy a new lipstick for summer? Pucker up with Gucci's 58-strong collection, £34 each (Harrods.com), which does for your lips what lingerie does for your body. The creamy Rouge à Lèvres Satin includes the collection's star shade, 25 Goldie Red, and hugs the contours of your pout without feathering; the Baume à Lèvres makes a parched pout look exquisitely full; and despite the sheeriness of the Rouge à Lèvres Voile, it won't flinch. The packaging takes centre stage, too, from bold turquoise to art deco-style tubes and a rosebud print that wouldn't look out of place in a 50s LA beauty parlour. Wrapped in a violet scent, with names like 'Love Before Breakfast' in homage to Hollywood, this vast range of new bullets is perfect for glamorous balmy nights.