

The Beauty LIST

The Beauty

1 QUEEN OF THE DESERT

A lush oasis in the Saudi Arabian desert inspired master perfumer Jacques Cavallier-Belletrud to delve into the Middle East's rich olfactory heritage. Like petals carried on the warm desert wind, spraying this fragrance means wrapping yourself in rose, a sprinkling of cinnamon, woody Oud Assam and jasmine tinged with honey-like orange blossom.

Louis Vuitton Fleur du Désert Eau de Parfum, Dhs1,660 for 100ml

POP IDOLS

All it takes is a dab of fragrance here, and a strategic tinge of colour there to instantly perk up your complexion and trigger emotional flashbacks. Prepare to be wowed by the latest innovations

HAPPY DAYS

Sometimes even icons have to reinvent themselves. 15 years after it first launched, Sisley's formula is even more powerful at shielding against sun and pollution with encapsulated UV filters and botanical extracts to neutralise heavy metals.

Sisley All Day All Year Essential Anti-Aging Protection, Dhs1,285 for 50ml

BRONZE AGE

Blush isn't the only make-up product to add dimension, or breathe life into tired skin. This bronzing powder is bursting with pink and tan pigments plus a barely-there shimmer for a 3D lit-within effect.

Guerlain Terracotta Light, Dhs265

RISING STAR

Laced with skin-plumping collagen, hyaluronic acid and a hefty dose of the peptide Matrixyl 3000, Qatari influencer Abdulla Al Abdulla's new collaboration with Fatima Almomen is a must for shutting hydration back into parched skin.

Fatima x Abdulla Celestial Serum, Dhs205 for 30ml

LIQUID ASSET

You've heard of glass skin, now prepare for glass hair. Like a miracle water, this treatment's completely clear formula means replenishing ingredients like roucou oil bind directly with the hair fibre for six times more sheen.

Davines Oil Liquid Luster, Dhs180 for 300ml

A MOMENT ON THE LIPS

Hermès' SS22 Limited Edition lipstick shades draw on pink morning skies, warm sunshine and a spring garden laden with almond blossom. One swipe leaves a glossy balm-like sheen, two an intense hit of colour.

Hermès Rouge Hermès in Rose Nymphéa, Orange Capucine and Beige d'Eau, Dhs315 each

IN THE THICK OF IT

The sexy packaging was enough to catch our eye. But the 200 per cent uptick in volume, minus any hint of crispiness, is what got us hooked as it's nothing short of transformative for thin, wispy lashes.

YSL Beauty Lash Clash Extreme Volume Mascara, Dhs180

FEELING FLUSH

Long-lasting, deeply hydrating thanks to Black Rose oil and a colour palette to make dull skin sing – what more could you ask for? Only that it doubles up as a blusher, which it naturally does, for the prettiest flush.

Gucci Rouge À Lèvres Liquide Mat, Dhs170

STUCK ON YOU

He's the aesthetic doctor the Kardashians have on speed-dial. Now Dr. Simon Ourian is adding a glow-galvanising sheet mask to his line spiked with his 'Collagen Boost Blend' for bouncy skin and pores that feel shrink-wrapped.

MDO Collagen Boost Sheet Mask, Dhs200

WORDS: FIONA EMBLETON