

FACE PAINT

Vivid eyeliners, blushers and lipsticks lit up the spring catwalks as make-up artists sought out a vibrant colour palette

WORDS: FIONA EMBLETON
PHOTOGRAPHY:
BENOÎT AUDUREAU

ART STICK IN HOT BERRY,
£20, BOBBI
BROWN

Choose a matte fuchsia lipstick for the perfect mix of pink and blue tones to bolster pale skin without looking dated.

OMBRE
COUTURE
IN JAUNE
AURORA,
£18,
GIVENCHY

This bright, sunny yellow looks best swept over lids with a brush in a sharp, thick line.

MARILYN MONROE LIPSTICK
IN SUNSET RED,
£7.99, MAX
FACTOR

Tonal red lipstick will be everywhere in s/s 2016 and this burnt orange shade is a spot-on match for olive skintones.

VERNIS IN 302
GARDEN,
£19, DIOR

This milky take on lime looks so much cooler and unexpected on nails than standard brights.

MAGNIF'EYES
DOUBLE ENDED SHADOW AND LINER IN DARK
SIDE OF BLUE,
£6.99, RIMMEL
LONDON

Cobalt eyeliner is less shocking when worn as a bold cat's eye flick.

MASCARA VOLUME EFFET FAUX CILS IN
HIPPIE GREEN, £25,
YSL BEAUTÉ

Teal is the LBD of mascaras: it flatters all eye colours by counteracting redness.

COLOUR
PERFORMANCE
CHEEKS,
£29, RMK

These two graduated shades do more than just create a healthy flush. Highlight cheekbones with the lighter pink shade and contour with the bright.